- Appeals of use-on-review in the County are heard by the Knox County Board of Zoning Appeals. Any aggrieved party has 30 days from Planning Commission action to file an appeal. Appeals should be filed with the Knox County Code Administration Department. Deadlines for scheduling such appeals will be established by that department.
- Appeals of concept plans or final plats in the City or County are filed with Chancery Court.

If you have a question about the appeals process, or if you wish to be notified about anyone filing an appeal on a particular item, see a staff member (seated at either end of the horseshoe-shaped table) or call the Knoxville-Knox County Planning office (215-2500) by the appeals deadline listed above.

* Second meeting of the month as the first meeting will not allow sufficient time for submittal to the City law department.

¹ Typically, Planning Commission recommendations requiring further action include rezonings, zoning ordinance amendments, street and alley closures in the city, and street name changes. Recommendations which are final decisions include uses-on-review, concept plans, and final plats—unless any of these are appealed.
