Appeals should be filed with the Knox County Code Administration Department. Deadlines for scheduling such appeals will be established by that department.
- Appeals of concept plans or final plats in the City or County are filed with Chancery Court.

If you have a question about the appeals process, or if you wish to be notified about anyone filing an appeal on a particular item, see a staff member (seated at either end of the horseshoe-shaped table) or call the Knoxville-Knox County Planning office (215-2500) by the appeals deadline listed above.

¹ Typically, Planning Commission recommendations requiring further action include rezonings, zoning ordinance amendments, street and alley closures in the city, and street name changes. Recommendations which are final decisions include uses-on-review, concept plans, and final plats—unless any of these are appealed.
